39TH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST—TONE 6

SUNDAY OF THE PRODIGAL SON

Welcome!

...to all who have gathered to follow Jesus Christ & manifest the Kingdom of God in the Liturgy of His Church. If this is your first time with us, give us a chance to get to know you and fill out a visitor card.

A Word from the Holy Fathers

A man is not saved by having once shown mercy to someone ... for "I was hungry" and "I was thirsty" is said not of one occasion, not of one day, but of the whole of life. In the same way, "you gave me food," "you gave me drink," "you clothed me," and so on, does not merely indicate one incident or action, but a constant attitude to everyone always. Our Lord Jesus Christ said that He Himself accepts such mercy ... in the persons of the needy.

then deliver me from the unquenchable fire,// and make me worthy to stand at Your right hand, O Righteous Judge!

Today's Worship — Scripture Readings

Epistle — 1 Corinthians 8:8-9:2

⁸ But food does not commend us to God, for if we eat, we are not better; and if we do not eat, we are not worse! ⁹ However, be careful that your freedom may never become a stumbling block to the weak. ¹⁰ For if someone sees you who have knowledge sitting in an idol's temple, will not this person's conscience, if weak, be emboldened to eat things sacrificed to idols? ¹¹ And thus, through your knowledge, shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died? ¹² And so, by sinning against the brethren and wounding their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ! ¹³ Therefore, if food causes my brethren to stumble, I will never ever eat meat, so that I may not cause my brethren to stumble.

9 Am I not an apostle? Am I not free? Have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? Are you not my work in the Lord? ² If to others I am not an apostle, yet at least for you I am one! You are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord.

Gospel — Matthew 25: 31-46

³¹ "But when the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then he will sit on the throne of his glory. ³² All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate them one from another, just as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. ³³ He will place the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left. ³⁴ Then the King will tell those on his right hand, 'Come, you blessed of my Father! Inherit the Kingdom prepared for you since the foundation of the world! ³⁵ For I was hungry and you gave me food to eat; I was thirsty and you gave me drink; I was a stranger and you took me in. ³⁶ I was naked and you clothed me; I was sick and you visited me; I was in prison, and you came to me.'

³⁷ Then the righteous will answer him, saying: 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you; or thirsty and give you a drink? ³⁸ When did we see you as a stranger and take you in; or naked, and clothe you? ³⁹ When did we see you sick, or in prison, and visit you?'

⁴⁰ The King will answer them, 'Amen, I tell you: as much as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me.' ⁴¹ Then he will also say to those on his left hand, 'Depart from me, you accursed, into the eternal fire which is prepared for the devil and his angels! ⁴² For I was hungry and you gave me no food; I was thirsty and you gave me no drink; ⁴³ I was a stranger and you did not receive me; naked, and you did not clothe me; sick, and in prison, and you did not visit me.'

⁴⁴ Then they will answer him: 'Lord, when did we see you hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not help you?'

⁴⁵ Then he will answer them, saying: 'Amen, I tell you: as much as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to me.' ⁴⁶ These [ones on the left] will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

Our Life in Christ — The Final Judgement

Every man will stand judgment before God for his life in this world. Each person will be judged according to his words and his works.

I tell you, on the day of judgment men will render account for every idle word they utter; for by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned (Mt 12.36).

For the Son of Man is to come with His angels in the glory of His Father, and then He will repay every man according to his works (Mt 16: 27, cf. Rev 2.23).

The judge will be Christ Himself, for He is the one who, by His suffering and death, has received the power to judge. It is the Crucified One who will call men to account at the end of the ages. He has won this right as a man through the perfection of His human life.

For the Father . . . has given Him the authority to execute judgment because He is the Son of Man (Jn 5.27).

Christ will judge all men exclusively on the basis of how they have served Him by serving all men—the least of the brethren.

... Then the King will say to those at His right hand, "Come, O blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you clothed me, I was sick and you visited me, I was in prison and you came to me." ... (see today's Gospel reading: Mt 25: 31–46)

All spiritual life is fulfilled in this one parable of Christ, for the heart of it is love, both for God and for man.

In commenting on this teaching about the final judgment, Saint Augustine has said that Christ Himself is truly the one who is found in all of these conditions, just as He is the one who is the Savior in each of them.

He Himself was hungry; who is the "bread of life," which if a man eats of it, he will never hunger again (Jn 6.35).

He Himself was thirsty, crying out "I thirst!" (Jn 19.28); who gives the "living water," which, if a man drinks of it, he will never thirst again (Jn 4.13, 6.35, 7.37).

He Himself was a stranger with "no place to lay His head" (Mt 8.20, Lk 9.58), who "came to His own home, and His own people received Him not" (Jn 1.11); who brings all men home to the heavenly house of the Father (Jn 14.1–2).

He Himself was naked, in the manger in Bethlehem, in the streams of the Jordan, and on the cross of Golgotha; who clothes all men with Himself (Gal 3.27), and with the "robes of salvation" (Is 61.10, Rev 6.11).

He Himself was sick, "wounded for our transgressions" and "bruised for our iniquities," left alone hanging on the cross (Is 53.5, Mt 26.56); who Himself heals all the wounds of men, for "with His wounds we are healed" (Is 53.5).

He Himself was in prison, arrested as a criminal and thrown into jail, forsaken by His disciples (Mt 26.56, 27); who Himself proclaims "liberty to the captives" (Is 61.1, Lk 4.18), setting men free from everything that binds them, and forgiving their crimes.

Since Christ has identified Himself wholly with every man, in every one of his sad and most sorrowful states, the person who "does it to the least of his brethren" does it to Christ Himself—not "as if" to Christ, but to Christ in reality, for Christ is most truly within every man, and every man is the bearer of Christ, the "image of the invisible God" (Col 1.15).

[...] It is also the teaching of the spiritual masters that what must be given to all men is Christ Himself: the Bread of Life, the Living Water, the Home of the Father, the robes of salvation, the healing of wounds, the liberation and forgiveness of all sins. In this sense every man, no matter how rich or how righteous, is poor, hungry, thirsty, naked, sick, sinful and imprisoned by evil and death. Thus to "do it to the least of the brethren" is to offer Christ to all men, to give them the eternal and unending satisfaction of all their needs and desires: bread which is never consumed, water which eternally satisfies, a home which is never lost, garments which do not grow old, healing which never suffers again, liberation which can never revert to captivity. Thus, "to do it to the least of the brethren” is to bring them the Kingdom of God. In doing this one offers to all men and so to Christ Himself what already belongs to them from God; as in the liturgy of the Church we offer to God that which already is His. In every case, this is Christ Himself.

We offer to Thee, what is already Thine, on behalf of all, and for all (Liturgy of Saint John Chrysostom).

This, therefore, is perfect love; the love of God and the love of man, the love for God and the love for man, becoming one and the same love. It is accomplished in Christ and is Christ. To love with this love is to love with the love of Christ and to fulfill His “new commandment” to “love one another even as I have loved you” (Jn 13.34–35, 15.12). In this is the whole of spiritual life. In this, and this alone, man will be finally judged. It is the crown of all virtue and prayer, the ultimate and most perfect fruit of God’s Spirit in man.
